-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 11 December 2003.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figure 1 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 2, 6, 8, and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kolton (5988462).

Kolton teaches a hanger (Abstract) comprising a plastic (Column 3, line 5) body and hook, the hook portion having at least one recess with a frictionally retained plastic insert contained therein (Figures 2 and 3), wherein the hanger may display an item for sale and hold a product inside it (Figure 7). Kolton also teaches the method of forming such a product by snapping together the components.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 3-5, 9-11, and 13-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kolton.

Kolton essentially teaches the invention as discussed above, but fails to specifically teach the use of PET. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to utilize PET as the plastic material, so as to keep costs down and production time low. PET is readily available and reasonably priced, and for the strength required of a hanger, would be an ideal and obvious choice to the ordinarily skilled artisan. In regards to the specific friction device utilized to retain the insert, or the method by which the hanger is formed, all of which are obvious choices by the ordinarily skilled artisan, dependent on the final use and production equipment available. There is no difference in their ultimate function inasmuch as they all provide the same result; mainly a retained insert in a formed hanger.

6. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kolton in view of Hollingsworth.

Kolton essentially teaches the invention as discussed above, but fails to specifically teach a torso shaped body, which Hollingsworth teaches as well known (Figure 1). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to utilize a torso shaped body, so as to provide a smooth surface upon which a product could be displayed. The ordinarily skilled artisan would appreciate the benefits of such a well known structure, and would have known to use this shape.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Louw (2003/0173381) teaches what is well known in the art.
